1  Competition Overview

1.1  Description

The NYU Center for Global Affairs and the NYU Center for Cybersecurity are proud to present the CSAW’22 Policy Competition. CSAW is the most comprehensive student-run cybersecurity event in the world, featuring international competitions, workshops, and industry events. The Policy Competition encourages students, academics, and professionals to challenge the status quo and impact the cyber-policy industry by presenting their ideas to leaders within the field. Students from various educational backgrounds who are interested in the nexus of policy and emerging technological issues are invited to think critically about major cybersecurity policy issues affecting society.

1.2  Topics (Update)

In 2022, the Policy Competition will focus on one topic with three subtopics:

Topic - Connected Communities

- National Security Concerns
- US-China Technological Competition Policy from an International Perspective

Background papers that outline the parameters of each topic and subtopic will be posted on csaw.io/policy on 25 July 2022. It is expected that teams will follow all instructions and parameters on the background papers to guide research and inform the contents of their policy briefs and presentations.

1.3  Competition Eligibility

- Competitors must be students enrolled in an undergraduate or graduate degree program as of 5 September 2022.
- Students may attend any accredited university from around the world.
● Students are not required to be part of the same institution, program, or educational field to participate. Interdisciplinary collaboration is encouraged.

● Teams of two (2) students are required.

1.4 Policy Competition Webpage
The Policy Competition webpage can be accessed here: csaw.io/policy

1.5 Contact the Organizers
The Policy Competition Committee is organized by students at New York University, and advised by Dr. Pano Yannakogeorgos at the NYU Center for Global Affairs.

Please direct your inquiries to csaw-policy@nyu.edu.

2 Competition Requirements & Important Dates

  ● Submission Deadline: 10 November 2022, 23:59 EST
3 Prizes

Prizes will be awarded as follows, and distributed beginning in late November 2022:

- First Place Team: US$ 1,000
- Second Place Team: US$ 750
- Third Place Team: US$ 500

4 Disclosure of Entry Distribution

In addition to being shared with judges, policy briefs and recorded presentations may be shared with CSAW conference attendees, sponsors, or other interested parties. Winning entries may be used as examples for future competitors.

5 Policy Brief Guidelines

These guidelines are applicable to both the Qualification Round and Semifinal Round Policy Brief.

5.1 Policy Brief Overview

A policy brief is a concise summary of a particular issue and provides policy recommendations on how to best handle the problem. Its purpose is to make research findings understandable to various audiences, most frequently stakeholders and other policymakers in government. For this reason, policy briefs are generally aimed at government policymakers and those who influence or formulate policy.

5.2 Topics

Policy briefs must focus on cybersecurity aspects of one (1) of the following subtopics:

Topic - Connected Communities

- National Security Concerns
- US-China Technological Competition Policy from an International Perspective

Background papers that outline the parameters of each topic and subtopic will be posted on csaw.io/policy mid/late August. It is expected that teams will follow all instructions and parameters on the background papers to guide research and inform the contents of their policy briefs and presentations.

Clarification regarding the context of policy briefs:
The recommendations contained within policy briefs should specifically impact the country of your choosing. Therefore, briefs should be addressed to nation-affiliated senior decision makers, and consider legality and feasibility from a specific country’s perspective.

5.3 Formatting Guidelines

- 2 pages maximum
- Arial
- Size 12-font
- Single Spaced
- 1-inch margins
- Chicago Style, 16th Edition citations
- Submitted as a PDF

5.4 Policy Brief Organization

Please follow this guidance when organizing your policy brief.

5.4.1 Executive Summary including header

The Executive Summary is typically one paragraph, and provides an overview of the problem and proposed policy action.

Executive Summary Header Sample:

To: Amb. Atul Keshap, Assistant Secretary of State for East Asian and Pacific Affairs, US Department of State
CC: Antony Blinken, Secretary of State; David Hale, Under Secretary of State for Political Affairs, US Department of State
From: Cybersecurity Team 1 [your Team Number]
Subject: Policy proposals addressing territorial issues of the South China Sea

5.4.2 Scope of the problem

- Identifying audience
  - These are senior-level decision makers who can take actionable steps to your policy. Their names should be included in the header’s “To” and “CC” sections.
- Background on the issue at hand
  - Teams have the freedom to decide which aspect they would like to focus on, but must address a particular aspect of a sub-topic that is included in the background paper.
○ Policy briefs should clearly define the problem
  ● Identifying key stakeholders across national, international, private, and academic sectors

5.4.3 Policy Recommendations
  ● Recommendations / solutions
  ● Timeline of proposal
  ● Impact
  ● Feasibility
    ○ Legal & Political
  ● Potential setbacks you anticipate with your proposal
  ● Funding information
  ● Alternative viewpoints
  ● Conclusions

5.4.4 Bibliography
  ● Chicago Style, 16th Edition citations
  ● The bibliography will not be counted as part of your page count (2 pages maximum)
  ● All sources must be credible and include a combination of media publications, trade publications, cybersecurity industry threat reports, academic publications, law reviews, etc.
  ● Policy briefs usually have 7 to 10 sources to support their claims.

5.5 Policy Brief Rubric

The policy brief grading rubrics are linked here (updated 22 July 2021):

Qualification Round Brief Rubric

Semifinal Round Brief Rubric

5.6 Policy Brief Submissions

Policy Briefs should be submitted via this Google Form using the naming convention described in section 7. Should you have issues accessing the Google Form, which will require that someone on your team has a Google account, you may email your presentation to csaw-policy@nyu.edu.
6 Presentation Guidelines

6.1 Semifinal (SF) Round Presentation

6.1.1 SF Presentation Deck Submission
- Presentation decks should be submitted to the Committee as a PowerPoint document
- Other presentation formats, such as Prezi, PDFs, etc., are not permitted
- Presentations should be submitted via this Google Form using the naming convention described in section 7. Should you have issues accessing the Google Form, which will require that someone on your team has a Google account, you may email your presentation to csaw-policy@nyu.edu.

6.1.2 SF Presentation Format & Guidelines
- Each team will have 10 minutes to present.
- All team members must be present during the Semifinal presentation
- Policy presentations should be addressed to the team’s intended audience.
  - The audience is the specific senior-level decision makers who can take actionable steps to enact their policy (e.g., the US Secretary of State).
- To stimulate real-world policy briefs, each team will have 5 minutes to provide their "bottom line up front" before going into the details of their proposal.
- Following the presentation, judges will have 10 minutes for a question and answer period with each team, followed by 10 minutes of private feedback.

6.1.3 SF Presentation Rubric

Semifinal & Final Round Presentation Rubric (updated 23 October 2021)

6.2 Final Round (FR) Presentation

6.2.1 FR Presentation Deck Submission
- Presentation decks should be submitted to the Committee as a PowerPoint document
- Other presentation formats, such as Prezi, PDFs, etc., are not permitted
- Presentations should be submitted via this Google Form using the naming convention described in section 7. Should you have issues accessing the Google Form, which will require that someone on your team has a Google account, you may email your presentation to csaw-policy@nyu.edu.

6.2.2 FR Presentation Format
- Each team will have 15 minutes to present.
- All team members must be present during the Final presentation
- Policy presentations should be addressed to the team’s intended audience.
  - The audience is the specific senior-level decision makers who can take actionable steps to enact their policy (e.g., the US Secretary of State).
● Following the presentation, judges will have up to 15 minutes for a question and answer period with each team.

6.2.3 FR Presentation Rubric

● Semifinal & Final Round Presentation Rubric (updated 23 October 2021)

7 Naming Conventions

To maintain anonymity during the grading process, all submission documents must be named using the following naming convention:

TeamNumber_Topic_CSAW22_Brief
TeamNumber_Topic_CSAW22_Deck

e.g. TeamD1_GeopoliticalClimate_CSAW22_Brief

Please do not include team member names in your submissions.

It is helpful, as well, to use your Team Number in the subject of emails sent to csaw-policy@nyu.edu.

8 Workshops

An optional pre-recorded Policy Writing Workshop and Policy Presentation Workshop will be held in late-September following the Registration Deadline. Workshops dates and times will be posted on https://www.csaw.io/policy and emailed to all registered teams.

Update: In lieu of a live workshop, teams will be invited to watch an “orientation” video that will discuss policy writing and presentation tips, followed by an opportunity to meet with organizers during live Zoom “office hours.”

9 Use of Personal Data

Personal data (ie, name, school, email) that is collected through the registration process is accessible only by the competition organizers and is used for the following purposes:

● Reminding registrants of competition timelines, rules, and updates
● Determining and contacting finalist teams and team members
● Announcing the names of finalist and winning team members on csaw.io/policy
● Examining multi-year participation of teams and individual player
- Determining and reporting total number of teams and total estimated individual participation
- Determining and reporting demographic trends related to participation, such as what countries have the highest number of teams participating
- Sending occasional updates regarding future CSAW events

Aside from announcing finalist and winners’ names, CSAW will not rent, sell, or share personal data with anyone other than the competition organizers.
